

sloners to reinstate him. Charges he was illegally suspended by Chief Schnettler.

Mrs. Elizabeth Schey, 78, 1924 Otto, found dead. Gas. Believed accidental death.

Illicit whisky still in Highwood accusation brought federal revenue officers to spot. Nothing found.

100 additional indictments expected returned today by Gary grand jury. Gamblers and resort-keepers hit.

Allen Anderson, 29, telegraph operator at Belvidere, fined $100 and sentenced to six months. Convicted of luring boys.

Michael Duvardi, 858 Milton av., is under guard at Jefferson Park hospital. Charged with murder of Leonardo Russo, 642 W. Division.

Mrs. Ella Johnson suing Carleton Hudson, also known as Betts, to recover $5,000. She alleges he accepted money to invest for her. Didn't return.

J. Raymond Schultz, clerk at La-Salle hotel, heard his 9-year-old son, Harold, was rescued from lake. Then he saw body taken from water. Collapsed.

Gladys Patterson, maid of Mrs. David Wise, 4355 Greenwood av., had $500 worth of clothing charged to her employer's account at loop store. Disappeared.

Harold Felsenthal, 5161 S. Michigan av., arrested. Charged with forgery and larceny by his employer, David Garner, head of Cigar Stores Novelty Co., 2924 S. Wabash av.

REYNOLDS DENIES BUSTING GRAHAM & SONS BANK

George M. Reynolds, president of Continental and Commercial National bank, issued a statement to the loop press yesterday denying that his bank had done anything wrong in calling in the $755,000 loan to Graham & Sons. It was this demand which forced the West Side institution to close its doors.

FESTIVE MERMAIDS START NEW FAD OF BEACH GYMNASTICS

Doing gymnastic stunts on the sand is a summer diversion that appeals to mermaids on the Pacific. The picture shows a California maiden standing on her head in the soft, white sand of the beach. This is one of the favorite "fun things" in between dips in the surf on the western beaches.

"CIGS" BARRED FROM SAILORS

Cigarets were tabooed at the Great Lakes naval training station yesterday.